Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the closest prior art references of record is the previously cited reference to Plum (4,817,027) and the newly cited reference to Kovach (6,442,512). However, neither teach or suggest the features of claims 1, 11, or 21 of "automatically generating code to compute a derivative by forming an expression tree from the derivative of the numerical expression with respect to an independent variable, wherein the expression tree makes use of temporary variables to form results of sub-expressions for computing the derivative of the numerical expression; and wherein forming the expression tree involves seeking to introduce only temporary variables to form results of sub-expressions as necessary to eliminate repeated common sub-expressions, thereby substantially minimizing the number of temporary variables".

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John Chavis whose telephone number is (703) 571-3720. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Tue & Th-F, 8:30-5:00.
